

The Administrative Court of Thailand

FRAUD ALERT:

Beware of “Fake Facebook Fanpage”.

Scammers have created a fake Facebook fanpage of “Office of the Administrative Courts”. After Facebook users follow the fake fanpage, the scammers send direct messages to the users, asking for personal information.

The real official fanpage of “Office of the Administrative Courts” has the blue verified badge after its name. More importantly, the Office of the Administrative Courts never requests any user to send his/her personal information via Facebook Messenger.

For further information, please visit www.admincourt.go.th or contact hotline 1355 (during working hours).
